Wingecarribee Child and Family Services
2013 DIRECTORY

The aim of the interagency

The aim of the interagency is to improve outcomes for families and children and young people in the Wingecarribee area through:

- Promoting the goals of Child and Family Services by utilising the framework of Families NSW, KTS & YAPA as a guide.
- Providing a communication link between Wingecarribee and Macarthur Child & Family Service Providers.
- Co-coordinating services to families and children and reducing duplication
- Encouraging community involvement and participation eg. Family Fun Days, Community Directory, community members - eg parents, educators & paediatricians.
- Identifying local needs and planning appropriate responses.
- Sharing information amongst services - working together to support each other including cross promotion and incorporating best practice.
- Promote up-to-date and relevant information about services reaching the right target groups.
- Providing advocacy and representation to decision-makers to influence planning and resource allocation (via Families NSW).
- Encourage diverse (CALD, special needs, Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islanders) groups to be included in planning, resource allocation and development activities.
- Representative from Highlands Child, to attend the Macarthur Child & Family Interagency (Mac CFI) and to other regional forums and provide feedback and information share to the Highlands Child.
- Encourage services with responsibility in Wingecarribee to actively engage with the community and Highlands Child interagency.
